PROJECT REPORT AND PRESENTATION (BRIEF)

The Project Report and Presentation is worth 100% of the final module grade

OVERVIEW

You will have been provided with details of what to include in your Project Report during both the COM-4005 Project I and the COM-4006 Project II modules. Refer to the reading material and documentation provided on the VLE for more specific information.

The Project Report should include the following sections:

A. Title page

B. Acknowledgements

C. Abstract

D. Table of Contents

E. Introduction

F. Executive Summary

G. Literature Review

H. Methodology

I. Presentation of results

J. Discussion of results

K. Conclusion

L. References/Bibliography

M. Appendices/Tables/Figures

The Project Presentation will be a short summary of the whole project in PowerPoint presentation form. You will be required to make use of bullet points to summarize issues and provide illustrations on the slides where necessary.

DELIVERABLES

Submit a PDF document of your project report with following the structure below;

The Project Report should be 7000 words (10%+-)

Submit a PDF document of your presentation

* The presentation should be a maximum of 20 slides

PROJECT REPORT AND PRESENTATION MARKING CRITERIA

Criteria	Description	Marks
Structure	The ability to create and present information in an organised and logical manner	5
Review of Literature	The ability to provide appropriate background information about the research subject area and explain its relevance to the research problem	20
Methodology or Approach	The ability to describe how and why a research methodology or approach was chosen and it's suitability towards the type of project	20
Results Achieved	The ability to show adequate results with the use of appropriate visualisations, descriptions or source code	10
Discussion	The ability to draw concise and comprehensive conclusions about the results achieved and whether they support your research problem or not	30
Quality of writing	The ability to use appropriate language and tone that is easy to understand and can convey ideas presented in the report and presentation both accurately and effectively	10
References and documentation	The ability to demonstrate an adherence to the APA referencing format and professional research standards of citing external sources	5
	TOTAL	100